President in Message to Congress Suggests Vigorous Changes in Legislation Governing Illegal Combines

WASHINGTON, January 7.—President Taft's special message dealing with amendments to the interstate commerce laws, looking to a more effective Federal supervision of railroads and conveying his recommendations for the passage of a Federal incorporation act, was transmitted to Congress today and read in the House, the Senate not being in session.

The message follows closely the forecasts that have been made from time to time and in the suggested legislation as to railways embodies all of the suggestions that the President has made in his speeches on the subject.

Taft suggests no changes in the Sherman anti-trust law at this time. The anti-trust feature of the message deals solely with the subject of Federal charters. The President thinks that an opportunity should be given the big industrial combinations to bring their business once more into the "zone of lawfulness" by taking out a Federal charter under certain prescribed conditions before it becomes necessary to proceed against every corporation about which there is a breath of suspicion.

John W. Mott Is Appointed New County Recorder

FOSS MAKES ATTACK ON THE NEW OFFICIAL

Incumbent Is Assemblyman and Is Well Known in This County

LAW REQUIRES THAT VACANCY BE FILLED

Office Compelled to Remain Closed Until Head Is Appointed

An extraordinary condition having arisen out of the death of County Recorder Abraham K. Grim, which rendered imperative the immediate appointment of his successor to guard against jeopardizing the interests of the public, the Board of Supervisors met at 11 o'clock this forenoon in special session, and selected Assemblyman John W. Mott, brother of the Mayor of Oakland, to fill the dead official's unexpired term, which has until the first Monday in January, 1911, to run.

Supervisor Fred W. Foss of Berkeley was the only member of the Board to oppose the appointment of Mott and explained to his colleagues why he did not want the man they had agreed upon.

He said:

EULOGIZED MR. GRIM.

"I know County Recorder Grim well. For sixteen years he was my neighbor and I thought a great deal of him, both as a friend and a public official. He represented the highest type of American citizenship and it cannot be said of him that he ever ran his office for political ends. His administration of the affairs of the office of County Recorder was efficient and always in the best interests of the public."

DISCUSSES SUCCESSION.

"Knowing all the while and having regard for the public good, I had hoped that the man this board appointed as his successor would be of a standard at least equal to that of the deceased official and that he would be a Berkeley man. Berkeley, however, had come to regard the County Recorder's office as his personal property. Charles S. Spear held it for fifteen years and A. K. Grim for eleven years. They represented a community which pays about 3 per cent of the total taxes of the county and considering these facts and the well-known claims of Berkeley to the office, I had hoped that the board would let the office remain in our hands."

"My own belief prevented me from keeping in touch with the trend of events in connection with the passing of Recorder Grim as closely as I could have wished and it was only when I arrived in this hall today that I learned that one of our own boys had gotten busy with the law and had become the impetus to the action, which is now before the board to fill the office of this office."

FOSS OPPOSED MOTT.

"I cannot conscientiously record my vote for John W. Mott because the people of Berkeley will never stand for the man who went to the legislature and fought them in the interests of the race-track followers when they appeared to him to support the Otis-Walker measure. His record in connection with the best interests of the people and even against his own brother, Mayor Frank Mott, who used a percentage of the anti-race-track gambling law."

REFUSES TO VOTE FOR HIM.

"There was the law authorizing the organization of the county boards of recorder. When I was informed, Superior Judge Edgewood has just decided in a decision to be unconstitutional. Mott was the prime mover in that bit of legislation, the intention of which was to place all of the records of the state into political hands to be fished about at will. If I saw fit, but I think I have said enough on this subject. It is a duty of the public not to vote for this man because although I am sorry to be compelled to make the statement under existing circumstances, I am convinced that he is not the right man to succeed the excellent Abraham K. Grim and that the other members of the board have acted unfairly towards the people of Berkeley by not appointing one of them to the vacancy."

PROCEEDINGS INFORMAL.

The proceedings of the session were very informal and lasted only about twenty minutes. When Chairman Hovey called the board to order, County Clerk Cook called the roll of members. Supervisors Kelley, Foss, Mulline and Bridge responded. Then the clerk

JOHN W. MOTT, state assemblyman and brother of Mayor Frank K. Mott, who was this morning appointed county recorder by the Board of Supervisors to fill the unexpired term resulting from the death of A. K. Grim.

Statement Is Made By John W. Mott

County Recorder John W. Mott was seen by a TRIBUNE representative today, about the statement made by Supervisor Foss at the meeting of the board today. He said:

"As far as my attitude on the race-track question is concerned, I would say that at the last session of the legislature I supported the bill which was presented and voted in favor of it. The bill I refer to is the anti-track bill. The Committee of Public Morals, of which I was a member, met immediately after they had been appointed and organized, and notwithstanding the fact that four bills pertaining to this subject were presented to them, recommended the bill finally passed without any consideration or discussion and adjourned. I was not in Sacramento when this action was taken and believed that the action of the committee was hasty. The bill recommended was copied word for word from the New York race-track law and I believe would not be effective in this state, inasmuch as the constitutional provisions of the two states are radically different. I moved that the matter be re-referred to the committee so that a law that would not only be operative, but effective, might be presented to the legislature."

"This motion was defeated, however, and when this bill came up for final passage I gave it my support; although subsequent developments have proven to the satisfaction of all concerned, that the bill has not accomplished the purpose it was expected to accomplish. That is to say, it was not effective in eliminating the race-track and poolrooms. I think had my judgment been accepted the committee could have recommended a bill which would have produced this result."

COURT DISMISSES THE CASE AGAINST J. E. BIRMINGHAM

Clasps Wife in Arms and Kisses as He Is Freed From Charges Made by Shreve & Co.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Joseph E. Birmingham for twenty-three years manager for Shreve & Company, was released by Judge McLean today from the charge of misfeasance and embezzlement and the case against him dismissed.

The court declared that criminal intent had not been proven against the young man, and as it was shown that he was a stockholder in the concern and apparently intended to pay back the $175 he borrowed from the funds, he could see no reason for holding him.

FREELY CONGRATULATED.

Birmingham was immediately congratulated by his friends in the court room who cheered the decision, and was clasped in the arms of his wife, whom he kissed passionately. Dr. Frederick W. Clapp, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, was one of the most important witnesses. He testified as to the good character of the defendant, but the principal points in connection with his being placed upon the stand was the following query put to him by Attorney Thomas Johnson:

"Is it not a fact that a representative of Shreve & Company called upon you and told you that if Mr. Birmingham would return to Shreve & Company the $9,000 shares of the stock held by him, the prosecution in this case would be dropped?"

"That is a confidential matter between pastor and parishioner," replied the clergyman, and Attorney Johnson, declaring that he had not been understood in that light, apologized for having put the query.

PINCHOT'S VIOLATION OF TAFT'S ORDER MAY CAUSE SUSPENSION

Executive Loses Patience at the Action of Chief Forester in Sending Letter to Dolliver, Read in Senate

WASHINGTON, January 7.—The special cabinet meeting held to consider the Pinchot case adjourned at 6 o'clock after a three-hour session. It was announced President Taft would later give out a statement. It was said Mr. Pinchot would probably soon leave the government service.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—The House late today adopted the joint resolution providing for the investigation on by Congress of the Interior Department and the Forestry Bureau. The Fitzgerald amendment eliminating the forest service from the proposed Ballinger investigation was lost by a vote of 65 to 126.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—Supported by the Democrats the House insurgents succeeded in having the Ballinger-Pinchot resolution of inquiry so amended as to require that the appointment of the investigating committee shall be made by the House and not by the Speaker. The vote was 149 to 145.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—Gifford Pinchot's case was earnestly discussed by President Taft and his cabinet today. The entire session of the cabinet, early in the day, was devoted, it is understood, to a consideration of the chief forester's violation of an executive order in sending to Senator Dolliver a letter which was made public yesterday.

Following the session it was announced that a second meeting would be held later this afternoon to further consider the action to be taken in Mr. Pinchot's case. The fact that the letter boldly upheld Louis Glavis' attitude on the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy caused considerable of a sensation at the capital, and it was the general conviction that the President certainly would have something to say regarding it.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—When today's cabinet session began at the White House there was every indication that the measure of punishment to be meted out to Gifford Pinchot, Government forester, was to be the chief subject of discussion.

The Pinchot letter to Senator Dolliver read in the Senate yesterday, and which constituted a direct violation of an executive order issued by the President some time ago forbidding any subordinate in the Government except through the head of a department, was taken into the cabinet meeting along with statements by Assistant Forester Price and Law Officer Shaw of the forestry bureau, who, by Pinchot's own statement, were directed to assist L. R. Glavis in preparing his charges against Secretary Ballinger.

MAY SUSPEND TRIO.

A number of congressional callers discussed the incident with President Taft prior to the cabinet session, and there was among them the impression that the matter might be disposed of at this time by the President suspending Pinchot, Price and Shaw, pending the decision of the congressional committee which is about to investigate the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

In fact, this course was suggested to the President by a number of administration supporters. It was said that in this way no radical action would be taken against Pinchot until he had had an opportunity to prove that his statements were based upon sound judgment and that the Cunningham coal lands were actually in danger of being given over to fraudulent claimants.

Among those of the callers it was said that there was an idea that Taft would dismiss Pinchot forthwith. It was pointed out that the forester, in connection with the appropriation for "pinning" for some time and that Taft's patience was at an end.

Apparently undisturbed by the mailstorm of malice directed at his head, Chief Forester Pinchot appeared at the capital early in the day and quickly and smilingly resumed the work of explaining to the sub-committee of the Agricultural committee of the House the details of the forestry service and the reasons for appropriating Government money in that direction.

PINCHOT TESTIFIES.

Pinchot appeared at the committee rooms at 11.30 a. m. and was cordially greeted by Chairman Scott and other members of the committee. He was examined for an hour. His answers to the questions included all branches of the forestry service. The interrogator had nothing whatever to do with the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy and was solely in connection with the appropriation for the forestry service which will be recommended by the agricultural committee.

NOTHING TO ADD.

On leaving the committee room, Pinchot was asked if he had anything to add to the various statements appearing in the newspapers today in regard to the controversy and investigation.

"No, I think not, at this time," he replied quietly, "but what do you hear?"

The correspondent assured him there was no dearth of information around the capital, but the forester declined to add any statement to the volume already afloat.

OFFERS AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON.—Representative Fitzgerald of New York offered in the House an amendment to the joint resolution providing for an investigation of the Interior Department and the Forestry Bureau, reported by the rules committee, would encounter a stubborn resistance from the Democratic side, when the discussion opened immediately.

IS ROBBED BY HIGHWAYMEN WHO RIDE IN AUTO

Victor Gomez's Badly Beaten by Two Aristocratic Thugs

Returning home shortly before 2 o'clock last night, Victor Gomez, an employee of the Winston place near Hayward, was attacked by two masked men who, leaping from a nearby automobile, beat him on a lonely road. He was badly injured and was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying between life and death. The two men, who were riding in an automobile, were badly beaten and were taken to the hospital, where they are now lying between life and death.

According to Gomez's story, it was some time before he was able to get up. He was badly injured and was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying between life and death. TO LEAD FIGHT.

The question was taken up as soon as the reading of the President's trust-railroad message had been concluded. Fitzgerald was prepared to lead the fight against the joint resolution for which Dalzell appeared as champion.

In explaining why the rules committee recommended a joint resolution, Dalzell said it was after adoption by both houses that the President's message was taken up. The President's message was taken up and the discussion opened immediately.

COUNTY RECORDER A. K. GRIM IS DEAD AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

PROMINENT AS OFFICIAL AND CITIZEN

Beloved Officer Passes Away at the Family Home in Berkeley

ELKS WILL CONDUCT FUNERAL CEREMONIES

County Lodge Officers Will Act as Pallbearers at Interment Saturday

A. K. GRIM, THE LATE COUNTY RECORDER, SUMMONED BY DEATH

A. K. Grim for the last thirteen years recorder for the county of Alameda, died shortly before midnight at his home 1211 H street in Berkeley after an illness of several months. He was 59 years and 10 months of age. He is survived by the widow and two sons, Mr. Carroll Cook of San Francisco and A. R. Grim, a Berkeley insurance man. The cause of death was a complication of diseases produced by old age.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the living room of the Oakland office in Fourteenth street. The burial will be in the Elks lot in Mount View cemetery. The pall bearers selected to represent the Recorder's office and the three Alameda county lodges of Elks from the Recorder's office are B. B. Booth, Stephen T. Gage, P. C. Webber and R. E. Leskie from the Berkeley lodge, Charles Gregory from the Alameda lodge, E. K. Taylor from the Oakland lodge, Captain E. M. Freeman and Charles H. Butler. With the passing of Abraham K. Grim into eternal rest Alameda county has lost another of those sterling men who figured prominently and materially in its early civic and political development as well as a public official with whom honesty and integrity went hand in hand with complete devotion to trust that the people reposed in him for so many years. As a private citizen Grim was a lovable gentleman of the old school and essentially domestic in his tastes. He was a staunch friend and a delightful companion, a diligent student of social and political economy and a man who went through life on the theory that right makes right. In his official capacity he was an executive of rare ability and always tempered his public business with such benevolence and fairness as to win the veneration of his subordinates and contemporaries and the esteem of the community at large. There may be others in public office in this county who can boast of as many personal and political friends as Grim numbered but certainly there are none who have more than he had.

BORN IN OHIO. Grim was a native of Canton, Ohio and a son of the late President McKinley. He was born on the 24th day of August 1851 and received his early training in the same elevating moral atmosphere and amid the same surroundings as marked the boyhood of the martyred chief executive of the nation. So it is no wonder that his career abounded in so many perfections. In many ways Grim closely resembled McKinley. He possessed the same gentle nature, the same sincere sympathy for his fellows and the same spirit of kindness that were the dominant characteristics of the dead statesman. They were boys together and grew to maturity under the guidance of that rugged pioneer parentage that instilled so deeply into its progeny the love of country, nobleness of character and tenacity of purpose which afterwards saved the country from dismemberment and helped to build an empire in the West.

CAME TO CALIFORNIA. Grim attended the public schools of his native town and received a commercial education before he was 19 years of age. Then he decided to cast his lot in the extreme West and journeyed overland by stage to Sacramento where he obtained a position in a bank in the early part of 1878. Shortly afterwards and in the famous year of 49 Grim turned to mining with the outbreak of the California gold fever which business he followed very successfully for several years. He was also active in banking and in the promotion of mining interests at the time of the Virginia City boom which resulted in McKinnon Flood Fair. Soarson and others making mammoth fortunes of the famous Comstock. It was while he was in the banking business in Virginia City that he first met Collins P. Huntington, the financial genius of the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific, who afterwards became one of his warmest friends. MAKES OAKLAND HOME. After mining passed its spectacular period and settled back into a conservative industry Grim turned his attention to real estate in Alameda county and the mining stock brokerage business in San Francisco. He took up his residence in Oakland and became a prominent member of the Grand Street Electric Railway in 1875 which afterwards became the Oakland Consolidated Electric Railway under the control of the late George W. McNear and the late John W. Coleman. This line was the forerunner of the huge Oakland Traction Company of the present day and was operated under the direction of Grim until taken over by the present holding corporation.

ENTERS POLITICS. While in the transportation business Grim made a large number of business acquaintances and a host of personal friends and when he retired from the service of the railroad corporation he was prevailed upon by them to enter politics. He obtained an independent nomination for County Recorder and though his popularity with the employees of the electric railway system he had helped so materially to build up the many staunch friendships and numerous acquaintanceships and his well known personal integrity he was elected by a large majority. This was in 1896 and he held the office continuously up to the time of his death serving two full terms and having only one who afterwards became one of his warmest friends.

WANTS TO USE RUBBER STAMP. President of the Council is Trying to Avoid Writer's Cramp. Will a rubber stamp do it? In the glare of the law for the public arm of the county of Alameda, the writer of this article has been called upon to write the obituary of a man who has been a prominent figure in the county for many years. more year of his third term to round out when the last summons came. He occupied the office eleven years without a break and during all of this period he served the people faithfully and well.

MOST POPULAR OFFICIAL. Before the last county election Grim had desired to retire to private life but his popularity was so great that he was compelled to yield against his most ardent wishes to the general demand to again become a candidate. Indeed had he lived he could have held the office of County Recorder indefinitely because no public official in Alameda county ever served public interests with greater fidelity.

LEAVES TWO CHILDREN. Shortly after coming to California Grim took to himself a wife who long since passed out of life. The result of this union was two children—Alfred R. Grim member of the San Francisco insurance firm of Conroy & Grim and residing at the Bohemian Club, and Mrs. Carroll Cook, wife of the prominent attorney and former superior judge of San Francisco. He left a considerable fortune the bulk of which represents realty properties in the bay cities. Grim was a man of strong personality and commanding figure. He was one of the earliest members of the Oakland Lodge of Elks and always took a deep and active interest in the order. He led a pure private and public life and in his death Alameda county has lost a good citizen and an efficient public servant.

WOODMEN SEAT NEW OFFICERS. Double Installation Is Held by Two Courts at Castle Hall. # OUSTING PARTY FAILS TO SHOW

Dissatisfied Haywardites Not Before Trustees With Petition for Removal

HAYWARD, Jan. 7.—An expected protest against the incumbency of Thomas S. Gray as town attorney of Hayward to the board of trustees failed to materialize at the meeting of the board Thursday night despite the fact that stories had been going the rounds for some time that such a protest was to be presented. Gray together with R. H. Goodwin, town engineer of Hayward, are both residents of Oakland, despite the fact that their names adorn the roster of city officials in this place. There are in Hayward many who claim residency of several legal years and are anxious for Gray's job. Because there are no resident civil engineers Goodwin's berth has not yet been subject to contest. The protest against Gray's incumbency has been long in coming and was supposed to have gathered sufficient force to have resulted in a petition for his removal to the board of trustees last night. Friends of Gray now say that the petition will never be presented. It is also rumored about Hayward that the law firm of Fitzgerald & Abbott of Oakland has become the legal advisers of the municipality. It may be that Gray removed the impending legal clash between the town and W. S. Meek over the flooding of a portion of Fourteenth street between Hayward and San Leandro is said to be the cause of the expected change. It may be that in the event Gray is retained as town attorney that the aforementioned legal firm will be his assistants in the Meek case.

GAS EXPLOSION WRECKS HOUSE

F. Germin Is Badly Burned When Kitchen Bursts Into Flame

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—A deafening explosion coming from the house at 404 Green street followed by a sheet of flames which rose in the air caused an alarm to be turned in by Policeman Kavanaugh from box 257 at 7:35 a. m. F. Germin who occupies the premises had gone into the kitchen to light the gas and ignited a match on entering the room. The flames had been escaping from an open jet and the entire kitchen was permeated with gas when he struck the light. Instantly the fluid ignited and an explosion occurred which was followed by the fire which communicated itself to the walls. Germin was burned about the hands and face but the blaze was extinguished by the department with nominal damage.

The negro was only eighteen years old. The hanging of Thompson is the first legal execution in this country in fifty years. # FLOOD DESTROYS WHOLE VILLAGE

Several Indians Missing and Are Supposed to Have Been Drowned

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Jan. 7.—A report reached here today that the entire Indian village of the Supai located in Cataract Canyon had been destroyed by a wall of water twenty feet high that swept down the canyon early Sunday morning. Several Indians are missing and are supposed to have been carried down in the flood. The Indians heard the roar of the oncoming torrent stopped out of their houses into three feet of water and shouting an alarm. About three hundred Indians escaped to high ground. No building was left standing. Fruit trees and small patches of cultivated land in the canyon were washed away. It is supposed that stockmen's dams and tanks also were washed out during the heavy rains letting the flood down the canyon. Cataract Canyon is a large canon leading into the Grand Canyon about fifty miles west of Grand Canyon start. There this tribe has lived on a small reservation for many years raising fruit. It is claimed John D. Lee who was shot for having participated in the Mountain Meadow massacre hid here for years and taught the Supais farming and fruit raising.

WILL NOT STOP AVIATION MEET
Injunction of the Wrights Does Not Apply to the Los Angeles Flights

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—With the statement telegraphed to this city from Buffalo, New York, wherein Federal Judge is quoted as having said today that the injunction issued in behalf of the Wright brothers preventing the manufacture and sale of aeroplanes for commercial purposes, but did not cover experiments with machines, the last supposed obstacle to the carrying out of the program for the Los Angeles aviation meet, was removed.

According to Judge Hazel no injunction has been issued, his decision is not in force until the decree is entered, and he will require that ample notice be given the other side of entry of the decree.

"I am informed," said the court, "that when the decree is entered, application will be made for a stay. Of course, if that be granted, the injunction will not interfere with any arrangements now under way."

One Fireman Killed, Many Are Hurt in a Big Hotel
Fire

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 7.—One fireman was killed and several others were injured, several women were overcome by smoke and two hundred hotel guests were driven into the street with the temperature near zero at 2 o'clock this morning when five floors out in the barber shop between and under the Cambridge and Stanton hotels on St. Charles street, in the heart of the business district.

Mary Fasche, a linenman, and Assistant Fire Chief Haynes opened the door of the barber shop and the former was burned to a crisp almost instantly in the heat of flames that shot out. Haynes fell unconscious, but was rescued by a patrolman.

Several other firemen were overcome by smoke, while several women guests in the hotel were prostrated by the smoke and oxygen and there was much confusion in the street.

The Cambridge Hotel is six stories high. There was a panic among the guests, all of whom ran to the street through the doors opened in their night clothing, many of them did not stop, and some slipped and there was much confusion before they could be saved for intense cold also hindered the firemen greatly, the water almost freezing as it left the nozzles. The fire was said to be under control at 4:30 o'clock, although still burning.

The loss is estimated at $100,000. Several black and white dogs, a house in the vicinity suffered loss of thousands of dollars worth of water.

William H. Clark, here of the Cherry man theater, one of the men rescued from the fire, was a guest at one of the hotels with his family and assisted several families to the street.

The cause of the fire is unknown.

UNION LABOR WILL HEAD ALL CIVIC BOARDS

San Francisco Supervisors-Elect Name Chairmen of Various Committees

JOHN A. KELLY TAKES FINANCE PRESIDENCY

Appointments Are Made at Caucus, Other Political Parties Being Ignored

SUPERVISORS' COMMITTEES SLATE ON CHAIRMANSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7. — The following Supervisors-elect are understood to be slated for chairman of committees named in the organization of the new board:
Finance—John A. Kelly.
Public Utilities—William C. Pugh.
Building—Charles A. Nelson.
Police—John L. Herget.
Hospital and Health—T. B. Healy.
Street—John P. McLaughlin.
Licenses—Thomas P. O'Dowd.
Artificial Lights—John O. Walsh.
Electricity—Cornelius Deney.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7. — A caucus of the Union Labor Supervisors was held yesterday at the Building Trades Temple. It closes a series of caucuses held by them since the return of Supervisor-elect John A. Kelly, president of the San Francisco Labor Council, from Toronto, where he attended the convention of the American Federation of Labor. At all of these caucuses Kelly presided. They have been devoted to the organization of the various committees in the new board in which twelve union laborers will have seats. Being a majority of the board, they will control the committees. Mayor-elect McCarthy was asked to name them, but declined the responsibility. The caucus thereupon appointed a committee consisting of John A. Kelly, Charles A. Nelson and Robert J. Loughery to make a selection. Most of the caucus meetings have been devoted to a discussion of this committee's report.

KELLY FOR FINANCE

It is said to have been finally agreed that Kelly shall be chairman of the Finance committee, which the most important committee of the board. John P. Loughery and John L. Herget are also slated for the same committee. The chairmanship of the public utilities committee will go to William C. Pugh. The other members will be Oscar Rocks and Robert J. Loughery. Charles A. Nelson has been chosen for chairman of the building committee; John O. Walsh, police committee; John O. Walsh, for artificial lights committee; Timothy B. Healy, hospital and health committee; Cornelius Deney, for electricity committee; Thomas P. O'Dowd, for license committee; and John P. McLaughlin for street committee.

OTHERS IGNORED

In choosing heads for the most important committees the Union Labor men have entirely ignored those supervisors who were elected under other political party denominations.

In the event of the removal of the present clerk of the board—John E. Ryan—it is rumored that John A. Ryan, assistant clerk for many years, will get the job.

Takes His Life After Attending an Inquest

CHICO, Jan. 7.—Tired of life and feeble health, Jacob Dinkie, 80 years of age, slashed his throat late last night in his room in the rear of John Adams hotel at Centerville, and died soon afterward.

A few days ago an inquest had been held in his room over the body of an aged miner, who was a friend of Dinkie. This is believed to have preyed upon the old man's mind.

OFFICERS USHERED IN BY EAGLES OF ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Jan. 7. — Eagles flocked to the installation of officers held last night at Woodmen hall, when one of the most enjoyable occasions in the history of the lodge was celebrated. The ceremony was conducted by Jack Heaney, past president of Oakland Aerie. Before about one hundred spectators, visitors were in attendance from the aeries around the bay.

A jolly evening given over to a banquet and an informal program followed the installation. Following are the officers who will serve for the coming term: Leo Smith, junior past worthy president; Percy For-Simpson, worthy president; Howard Smith, worthy vice-president; Howard Smith, worthy secretary; W. R. Taylor, worthy financial secretary; W. R. Taylor, worthy treasurer; G. Harold Ward, inside guardian; W. R. Connors; outside guardian, Jack Crowley; trustees, G. M. Barker, Tom Souly; H. Benson; conductor, G. H. Altwater. Dr. Tom Carpenter acted as worthy grand conductor.

He also served as toastmaster at the banquet which followed the installation. Members and guests enjoyed the sumptuous feast to the utmost.

After the banquet Jack Heaney sang "Man." It brought down the house and he responded to so many requests that the scales registered the loss of five pounds this morning.

Edgar Ward recited in his inimitable style and a toast was made to the lodge by J. Hansen. Nicholas P. Reinecker closed the program with a piano solo.

Pincho's Letter to Dolliver.

Gifford Pincho's letter to Senator Dolliver is an amazing effusion viewed from any standpoint. It is not only in flagrant violation of a recent order issued by the President forbidding department officials to address Congress save through their superiors, but it reflects directly on President Taft, Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary Ballinger. Moreover, it is addressed to a Senator conspicuous for his hostility to the administration, and is in the nature of a brief in defense of L. R. Glavis, formerly special agent of the Interior Department, who was recently dismissed by the President's order for making baseless attacks on a cabinet officer, and the head of the department in which he was a subordinate.

The Chief Forester not only justifies the attacks Glavis made on Secretary Ballinger and Mr. Dennett, Commissioner of the Land Office, but he defends the irregular methods employed by Glavis and the gross breach of official decorum they emphasized. He admits that he sent Price and Shaw, two of his subordinates in the Forestry Bureau, which is a division of the Agricultural Department, to Chicago to assist Glavis in making up the reports attacking Secretary Ballinger and Commissioner Dennett. A private letter from Glavis to Assistant Secretary of the Interior Schwartz proves that the special agent was conspiring to get Dennett removed, for he states in his letter that "D. will have to go," and suggests that Schwartz make an effort to be appointed to succeed him.

Glavis and Dennett were both attached to the Interior Department, hence Pincho and his subordinates were actively interfering in the affairs of another department, and doing so without the knowledge and approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Mr. Pincho also speaks of the dismissal of Glavis in terms which cast open discredit on the President, and are in direct contradiction of the report Attorney General Wickersham has just submitted to Congress. Moreover, the dispute with respect to the Alaska coal lands has not even a remote connection with forest and water conservation.

Therefore, the Chief Forester has gone out of his way to challenge not only the integrity of Secretary Ballinger and Commissioner Dennett, but has impeached the good faith of the President and the Attorney General. In defiance of the President's order he has made a Senator arrayed in open hostility to the administration the mouthpiece of his charges. All in all, his action is extraordinary beyond precedent. Apparently his letter is intended to create public opinion antagonistic to the President and Secretary Ballinger on the eve of the investigation Congress is about to institute. Clearly it is a demonstration hostile to the administration and in direct aid of its enemies.

San Luis Obispo county, according to the San Luis Obispo Tribune, had the finest snowstorm last Saturday and Sunday it has experienced since 1883. Such meteorological visitations to any part of sunny California are so rare that they may be welcomed when they occur as interesting natural phenomena.

Theodore Roosevelt is really a great hunter, but a New Mexican trapper has set a mark for him which he will find hard to beat, having smoked thirteen bears out of a cave located in the foothills twenty miles from Santa Fe recently and killing each one as the animal emerged. And the whole performance is said to have occupied less than an hour.

Yesterday the types made us say, "THE TRIBUNE believes William H. Taft is not an able and astute executive," which is exactly the opposite of what we intended to say. Dropping out the little word "only" in the first half of a sentence completely reversed what we intended to say. President Taft has proved himself to be a wise and prudent administrator, and in our opinion neither his wisdom nor his perception has declined of late.

The Washington correspondents were fooled in regard to the place General James F. Smith was to get. They all had it that he was to succeed Marion De Vries on the National Board of Appraisers, but when his appointment was sent to the Senate it was for a place on the new Court of Customs, for which he is better fitted. Anyhow, it is gratifying that so worthy and distinguished a Californian has received reward and recognition at the hands of the President.

A dispatch from El Paso says one-tenth of the inhabitants of that city were arrested by the police last year. This is an example of the loose and inaccurate statements which so often creep into the press. It would be a grave reproach to El Paso if one-tenth of her inhabitants had fallen into the hands of the police during a single year. What was really meant in the dispatch was that the number of arrests made by the El Paso police during the year just closed equaled one-tenth of the population of the city. If the record were examined it would show that many persons were arrested several times during the year, and that many others taken in charge were not residents of the city at all. The matter is not particularly important, save as an illustration of the way errors are made in the American press by trying to make statements of prosaic fact in graphic terms. Thus accuracy is sacrificed to spectacular effort — sometimes the truth disappears altogether.

Death of Recorder A. K. Grim.

Alameda county has lost one of its most popular and efficient public officers and one of its most highly respected citizens through the death of A. K. Grim, its county recorder. Death was due to a complication of maladies which baffled the best efforts of medical science to overcome. But Mr. Grim had long passed the allotted limit of human life—three score and ten—as the result of a well-spent career and a sturdy constitution.

In every walk of human activity in which he was engaged Grim proved his efficiency and sterling integrity, and made a multitude of the warmest and strongest friends. No man possessed in a more eminent degree the faculty of making friends and, after making them, holding them unwaveringly. For the past eleven years he held the office of Alameda County Recorder, having thrice been elected to the position with the prospect of an indefinite tenure had his life been prolonged. No public officer in Alameda county more firmly held the affection and commanded the respect of his subordinates. One of the cardinal principles of his life was to treat everybody with courtesy and fairness, qualities which not only endeared him to those associated with him in his private and public career, but to everyone with whom he came in contact socially and in a business way. Grim was a man of marked executive ability and unimpeachable honesty and his death will be sincerely mourned wherever he was known and nowhere more so than by the people among whom he lived and whom he served during the later years of his life.

Oakland and San Diego Harbors

The San Diego Union of last Sunday has this to say editorially:

"San Diego's claim to the possession of the safest land-locked harbor on the Pacific coast, if not on any coast, was amply sustained in the rather severe test of yesterday. A gale of between thirty and forty miles an hour raged during a large part of the morning. The ocean was lashed into fury, the waves being tremendous. The spacious bay, however, was scarcely ruffled. Shipping rode at anchor as peacefully as though there were no howling tempest outside. Vessels at the wharves scarcely tugged at the hawsers, and the countless little pleasure craft along the waterfront merely danced on the wavelets. In spite of the almost unprecedented tempest that howled along the coast outside, no damage was done within the long stretch of water shielded by the protecting arms of Point Loma and the Coronado peninsula. A more perfect haven of safety than San Diego harbor presented during that great storm could hardly be imagined."

No reasonable exception can be taken to the foregoing statement unless it be to the claim of San Diego being the safest land-locked harbor on the Pacific coast. Oakland harbor can honestly claim to be equally land-locked, absolutely unruffled in its waters and perfectly safe to shipping. No vessel moved in Oakland harbor, tugs, even, in the slightest degree, at its hawser, under any condition of tide or weather. Oakland has, besides, an available water front for commerce probably more extensive than San Diego. It has cost the federal government something, of course, to improve Oakland harbor channel; but San Diego harbor has also been an expense to the government. The discharge of the San Diego river had to be confined to false bay by the construction of a costly dam. Federal money has also been spent on the improvement of the entrance, the removal of the bar and the deepening of the channel of San Diego bay. That is, however, a matter of small import, for San Diego harbor is worth to the country all the money that has been spent in its improvement, just as Oakland harbor is.

The point to be more especially emphasized at the present time is that the federal government is now spending approximately a quarter of a million dollars to dredge a thirty-foot low tide channel for San Diego harbor, for the benefit of the commerce of an urban population of not over 45,000, a sparsely populated and largely unproductive back country which has no direct transcontinental railroad communication, whereas the Board of Army Engineers of Rivers and Harbors is hesitating about granting to Oakland harbor a corresponding favor, although the resident Army Engineer in charge has urgently recommended it.

We are not raising the point of discrimination in protest against the deepening of San Diego's harbor channel. Every dollar expended by the government in the improvement of San Diego bay and its entrance is money well invested and will in time be returned to the government with perpetual interest. It is equally true that every cent of public money spent in the improvement of Oakland harbor will also be returned with an increased interest in perpetuity when the improvements recommended by Colonel Biddle are carried out. Moreover, the country at large will derive prompt returns from these improvements for they will not only directly serve the commercial wants of a community of practically one-half million people, but, indirectly through the four transcontinental railroads whose land terminals are on the shores of Oakland harbor, benefit every part of the United States touched by these railroad lines. Oakland harbor has, therefore, an even greater claim than San Diego just now for the favorable consideration of the Army Board of Engineers. It is not fair to make fish of one harbor and fowl of the other.

Big Decrease in SALE OF BEER

The following table from the United States Brewers' Association shows the comparison by States of the beer sales for the last two fiscal years, with the percentage of increase or decrease in each State. The decrease in manufacturing States living little or no dry territory varies from .01 per cent (in Illinois) to 6.86 per cent (in Pennsylvania). The decrease in local option States varies from 2.29 per cent (in Connecticut) to 7.79 per cent (in Ohio). Hugh J. Fox, secretary, says: "The table indicates that more than half the decrease was caused by industrial conditions, and that the loss from both State and local prohibition was probably not over a million barrels."

Some Comments on Live Topics

"One of the greatest forces in the temperance movement was that started by Judge William J. Pollard of St. Louis," said C. D. Babcock of St. Louis at the New Willard. "Judge Pollard several years ago, at that time being a justice of the police court of St. Louis, conceived the idea of releasing those drunkards and petty offenders who were haled into court as the result of drink upon their signing a total abstinence pledge in open court and requiring them to keep the pledge or go to the workhouse if they violated it. This plan of Judge Pollard's gave the habitual drunkard a chance to work out his own redemption and to reform himself and the State a chance to reclaim another citizen. Judge Pollard did not stop with the signing of the pledge. He required the drunkard to report at his residence after working hours, and thus acted as his own probation officer, keeping his eye personally on many who had signed the pledge."

"By this plan Judge Pollard was enabled to keep track of hundreds of individuals who otherwise would have gone to the jails or workhouses time after time, and it is proved by the records he kept that the plan worked so well that more than 90 per cent who signed the pledge actually kept it. Those who broke the pledge did it so quietly that few of them ever appeared in the judge's court again."

Hector Baxter of Minneapolis, at the New Willard last evening discussed with enthusiasm the immigration and industrial boom now taking place in the Canadian northwest. "In northwest Canada there are now more than 60,000 Americans who have become permanent settlers in the country. They took with them an average of $1000 in cash, and you can find hardly a single immigrant who has not prospered. Most of them are engaged in wheat growing," said Mr. Baxter.

"The railway development of Canada within the last five years is simply phenomenal," continued Mr. Baxter. "The Canadian Pacific was the first transcontinental railway to be built in Canada, and the second, now under construction in parts, is the Canadian Northern. It soon will be extended through British Columbia to Vancouver, which city will be its Pacific terminus. Senator Nelson in public life in Washington who fully understands the gigantic development that will result in that section of Canada when the Canadian Northern is finished. The road is being built by McKenzies, Mann & Company, who not so very many years ago started without a dollar. That firm now has millions, an illustration of what the Canadian northwest is capable of doing for energy and enterprise. Americans in Canada are well satisfied with their new homes, and are content to live under the British flag."—Washington Post.

"The 'white slave' traffic extends in directions which the public is little aware of," declared Thomas O. Williams of New York, a social reformer, at the New Willard. "Even now the average citizen finds it hard to believe that there are men and women so vile as to trade on virtue and to make victims of the young and trusting. That this traffic is actually rooted in nearly every large city in the United States is well established now from government investigations."

"In New York, the greatest mart for the terrible traffic, public sentiment has already crystallized into a determination to put an end once and for all to the vice. Citizens of Chicago have formed an organization to break up the traffic in that city, and their efforts are being ably seconded by District Attorney Edwin W. Sims, who is prosecuting with vigor these criminals wherever he can discover them."

"It is now evident that in the country at large there are a vast number of persons who have been aroused by the recent revelations of the 'white slave' traffic, and the reform organizations of all kinds are already moving to concerted movement to stamp out the evil. A nation-wide campaign is organizing among all the reform agencies, and it will not be long before legislation of a national character will extirpate the criminal traffic root and branch."

RECIPE FOR CATARRH

The only logical treatment for catarrh is through the blood. A prescription, which has recently proved wonderfully effective in hospital work, is the following. Any druggist has the ingredients or will quickly get them for you. Any one can mix them.

"One ounce compound syrup of Sarsaparilla, one ounce Tonic compound, half pint first-class whiskey." These to be mixed by shaking well in a bottle, and used in tablespoon doses before each meal and at bedtime. This cured many people here last winter.

Burke, supervisor of census in the third district of California, appeals to the merchants and citizens of Oakland to do all in their power to assist the enumerators who collect the census and request that the proper data be given to them and that every resident give his name for the good of the city.

Burke has also announced that all applications for the position of enumerators be filed with him in his office in the Tribune Building, Eighth street between Broadway and Franklin streets.

Chief Special Agent Clark arrived from Washington a few days ago to take the census of manufacturers, which will begin February 1 and it will take about six months to complete the work. The taking of the census of the population will commence April 15.

CHAUFFEUR MUST SERVE 10 MONTHS

Driver Whose Auto Killed Preacher Will Have to go to Prison

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Samuel E. Campbell, an automobile dealer, will have to serve ten months in the county jail for causing the death of Rev. C. Brinley Morgan, rector of Christ Church here, in January, 1908. The Superior Court, to which he appealed from the Police Court, fixed the penalty at ten months in jail. Today the Supreme Court of Errors, to which Campbell carried the case, confirmed the judgment of the Superior Court.

Rev. Morgan was crossing Broadway, when he was struck by Campbell's auto, which was going more than twenty miles an hour, according to witnesses. Campbell said his speed was not over eight or ten miles an hour and that the minister stepped right in front of the automobile.

MORE LAW ON TAP FOR AERONAUTS

Having Overcome Gravity Are Held Down by Injunctions

PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 7.—A conference here today between patent attorneys and C. H. Lamson of Oxnard, may result in the institution of litigation against the Wright Brothers, based on the point on which the Dayton aviators are now proceeding against Currier and others for infringement of the aeroplane patent. Lamson asserts that a patent obtained by his father in 1901 had the warped surface wing feature, which the Wrights are seeking to declare others from using under their patent of 1905.

Lamson said that when his father applied for rights the government officials informed him that a patent would not be granted on anything so impossible as a flying machine. So it was described as a "five planed scientific kite." But the patent papers contained the proviso that "it is also capable for use as a flying machine."

This, Lamson believes, furnishes sufficient foundation for action.

At the last meeting of the board controlling the affairs of the organization, to take the place of Mrs. Frances M. Pugh, who resigned on account of ill health, she has been elected treasurer. Mrs. Pugh, general secretary of the association, has returned from a short visit to her sister, Mrs. J. Chambers, at Camp Meeker.

The "Messenger," or official organ of the association, was issued for this month yesterday, under the editorship of Mrs. Charles H. Rowe and Mrs. Albert Smith. The issue, which is published monthly, contains items of interest about the association headquarters.

Last of the Family Who Ate Poisoned Pears Dies in Agony

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—With the death last night of Virginia Preciado, two years old, the total number of deaths that have been caused among the descendants of the Marquez family in Santa Monica by eating of the contents of a jar of tainted pears was raised to twelve.

Mrs. Braulio Preciado, mother of the child and the last of the thirteen who perished of the poisoned fruit, is in a precarious condition tonight, although it has been ascertained that she merely placed a few drops of the liquid in the jar on her tongue and spat it out when she discovered that fermentation had rendered it unpalatable.

Two infants in arms who were nursed at the breasts of their mothers after the mothers had eaten of the fruit are being closely watched by physicians, who are fearful that their lives also may yet be sacrificed.

Urges Bed Slat in Training of Young

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—In an address before members of the Jochannah lodge at Sinai temple yesterday afternoon, Municipal Judge Goodnow declared against abolition of corporal punishment in dealing with correction of evil tendencies in the young.

"I believe in moral suasion at early stages of disobedience, and after that in vigorous application of the family bed slat," he said. "Something should be done to lessen the procession of 15,000 boys and girls which yearly moves through our courts."

EX-MERCHANT FOUND HANGING TO A RAFTER

NORMAN, Okla., Jan. 7.—P. R. Anderson, formerly a furniture merchant of Chicago, but who with his family, came three weeks ago to live with his father-in-law, M. C. Ahlman, near Norman, was found hanging to a rafter in his room there yesterday. Anderson, it is said, was once prominent on the Chicago Board of Trade, where he was nearly everything and then suffered a collapse. The body will be sent to Ohio, his former home, for burial.

President Suggests Federal Supervision of Railroads

Railway Legislation As Proposed Embodies Numerous Restrictions

pose, even though, if it were being newly enacted, useful suggestions as to change of phrase might be made.

It is the duty and purpose of the executive to direct investigation by the Department of Justice, through the Grand Jury or otherwise, into the history, organization and purposes of all the industrial companies with respect to which there is any reasonable ground for suspicion that they have been organized for a purpose, and are conducting business on a plan, which is in violation of the anti-trust law. This work is a heavy one, but it is not beyond the power of the Department of Justice. If sufficient funds are furnished to carry on the investigations and to pay the counsel engaged in the work. But such an investigation and possible prosecution of corporations, whose prosperity or destruction affects the comfort not only of stockholders, but of millions of wage earners, employees and associated trades men must necessarily tend to disturb the confidence of the business community, to dry up the new flowing sources of capital from its places of hoarding and produce a halt in our present prosperity that will cause suffering and strained circumstances among the innocent many for the faults of the guilty few.

TO CHANGE CONDITIONS WITHOUT DISTURBANCE

The question which I wish in this message to bring clearly to the consideration and discussion of Congress is whether, in order to avoid such a possible business danger, something cannot be done by which these business combinations may be offered a means, without great financial disturbance, of changing the character, organization and extent of their business into one within the lines of the law, under Federal control and supervision, securing compliance with the anti-trust statute.

SOME ARGUE THERE ARE 'GOOD AND BAD' TRUSTS

Many people conducting great businesses have cherished a hope and a belief that in some way or other a line may be drawn between "good trusts" and "bad trusts," and that it is possible by amendment to the anti-trust law to make a distinction under which good combinations may be permitted to organize, suppress competition, control price and do it all legally if only they do not abuse the power by taking too great profit out of the business.

They point with force to certain notorious trusts as having grown into power through criminal methods, by the use of illegal restraints and plain cheating, and various acts utterly violative of business honesty or morality, and urge the establishment of some legal line of separation by which a "criminal trust" of this kind can be punished, and they, on the other hand, be permitted under the law to carry on their business.

Now, the public and especially the business public, ought to rid themselves of the idea that such a distinction is practicable, or can be introduced into the statute. Certainly, under the present anti-trust law, no distinction exists. It has been proposed, however, that the word "reasonable" should be made a part of the statute and then it should be left to the court to say what is a reasonable restraint of trade, what is reasonable suppression of competition, what is a reasonable monopoly.

Generally, in the industrial combinations called "trusts," the principal business is the sale of goods in many States and in foreign markets; in other words, the interstate and foreign business far exceeds the business done in any one State. This fact will justify the Federal Government in granting a Federal charter to such a combination to make and sell, to invest and develop commerce, the products of useful manufacture, under such limitations as will secure a compliance with the anti-trust law. It is possible so to frame a statute that while it offers protection to a

PRESIDENT'S VIEWS ON TRUST LAWS

In discussing the subject of trusts President Taft says among other things: "Monopoly destroys competition utterly and the restraint of the full and free operation of competition has a tendency to restrain commerce and trade. A mere incidental restraint of trade is not within the inhibition of the act, but it is there the combination or conspiracy or contract is inevitable and directly a substantial restraint of competition, and so a restraint of trade, that the statute is violated."

"The object of the anti-trust law was to suppress the abuses of business of the kind described. It was not to interfere with a great volume of capital which concentrated under one organization, reduced the cost of production and made its profit thereby, and took no advantage of its size by methods akin to duress to stifle competition with it."

"I therefore recommend the enactment by Congress of a general law providing for the formation of corporations to engage in trade and commerce among the States and with foreign nations, protecting them from undue interferences by the States and regulating their activities so as to prevent the recurrence, under national auspices, of those abuses which have arisen under State control."

methods of carrying on of business, which, before its passage, were regarded as evidence of business sagacity and success, and that they were denounced in this act, not because of their intrinsic morality, but because of the dangerous results toward which they tended, the concentration of industrial power in the hands of the few, leading to oppression and injustice. In dealing, therefore, with many of the men who have used the methods condemned by the statute, for the purpose of maintaining a profitable business, we may well facilitate a change by them in the method of doing business, and enable them to bring it back into the zone of lawfulness, without losing to the country the economy of management by which, in our domestic trade, the cost of production has been materially lessened, and in competition with foreign manufacturers, our foreign trade has been greatly increased.

NEED OF LAW IN FORMING CORPORATION

Through all our consideration of this grave question, however, we must insist that the suppression of competition, the controlling of prices, the monopoly, or attempt to monopoly, are not only unlawful, but contrary to the public good, and that they must be restrained and punished until ended.

I therefore recommend the enactment by Congress of a general law providing for the formation of corporations to engage in trade and commerce among the States and with foreign nations, protecting them from undue interferences by the States and regulating their activities so as to prevent the recurrence, under national auspices, of those abuses which have arisen under State control. Such a law should provide for the issue of stock of such corporations to an amount equal only to the cash paid in on the stock; and if the stock is issued for property, there at a fair valuation, ascertained under approval and supervision of Federal authority, after a full and complete disclosure of all the facts pertaining to the value of such property and the interest therein of the persons to whom it is proposed to issue stock in payment of such property only of such corporations to the same taxation as is imposed by the States, within which it may be situated, upon other real property located therein, and it should require such corporations to file full and complete reports of their operations with the Department of Commerce and Labor at regular intervals.

Corporations organized under this act should be prohibited from acquiring and holding stock in other corporations (except for systematic reasons upon approval by the Federal authority), and from avoiding the creation, under national auspices, of the holding company, with subordinate corporations in different States, which has been such an effective agency in the creation of the great trusts and monopolies.

If the prohibition of the anti-trust act against combinations in restraint of trade is to be effectively enforced, it is essential that the National Government shall provide for the creation of national corporations to carry on a legitimate business throughout the United States. The conflicting laws of the different States, and the necessity of foreign corporations, make it difficult, if not impossible, for one corporation to comply with their requirements so

Court of Commerce To Hear Appeals From Interstate Commission

By restraining interstate commerce, it is not the intention of the government to permit this monopoly to exist under the Federal incorporation, or to transfer to the protecting wing of the Federal Government the State corporation now violating the Sherman act.

NATION SHOULD NOT HARRASS BIG CAPITAL

But it is not, and should not be, the policy of the government to prevent reasonable concentration of capital which is necessary to the economic development of manufacture, trade and commerce. This country shows a power of economic production that has astonished the world and has enabled us to compete with foreign manufacturers in many markets. It should be the care of the Government to permit such concentration of capital while keeping open the avenue of individual enterprise and the opportunity for a man or corporation with reasonable capital to engage in business. If we would maintain our present business supremacy, we should give to industrial concerns an opportunity to reorganize and to concentrate their legitimate capital in a Federal corporation, and to carry on their large business within the lines of the law.

Second, there are those who doubt the constitutionality of such Federal incorporation. The regulation of interstate and foreign commerce is certainly conferred in the fullest measure upon Congress, and if, for the purpose of securing the regulation of interstate commerce, it is the most thorough manner that kind of regulation Congress shall initiate that it may provide and authorize certain agencies to carry on that commerce, it would seem to be within its power. This has been distinctly affirmed with respect to railroad companies during an interstate business and interstate bridge. The power of incorporation has been exercised by Congress and upheld by the Supreme Court in this regard. Why, then, with respect to any other form of interstate commerce, like the sale of goods across State boundaries and into foreign commerce, may the same power not be asserted? Indeed, it is the very fact that they carry on interstate commerce that makes these great industrial concerns subject to Federal protection and control.

NATION'S POWER AND MANUFACTURE OF GOODS

How far, as incidental to the carrying on of that commerce, it may be within the power of the Federal Government to authorize the manufacture of goods, is perhaps open to discussion. Though a recent decision of the Supreme Court would seem to answer the question in the affirmative.

Even those who are willing to concede that the Supreme Court may sus-tain such Federal incorporation are inclined to oppose it on the ground of its tendency to the enlargement of the Federal power at the expense of the power of the State. It is a sufficient answer to this argument to say that no other method can be suggested which offers Federal protection on the one hand and close Federal supervision on the other, of these great organizations that are in fact Federal, because they are as wide as the country and are entirely under their business by State laws. Nor is the concentration of Federal power under this act likely to be excessive. Only the largest corporations would avail themselves of such a law, because the burden of complete Federal supervision and control that must certainly be imposed to accomplish the purpose of the incorporation would not be accepted by an ordinary business concern.

The third objection, that the worst offenders will not accept Federal incorporation, is easily answered. The decrees of injunction recently adopted in prosecution under the anti-trust law are thorough and sweeping, that the corporations affected by them have but three alternatives before them.

First, they must resolve themselves into their component parts in the different States, with a consequent loss to themselves of capital and effective organization, and to the detriment of concentrated energy and enterprise; or

Second, in defiance of law and under secret trust, they must attempt to continue their business in violation of the Federal statute and thus incur the penalties of contempt and bring on an inevitable criminal prosecution of the individuals named in the decrees and other associates; or Third, they must reorganize and accept in good faith the Federal charter I suggest.

COMPULSORY LICENSE LAW IS UNNECESSARY

A Federal compulsory license law, urging a substitute for a Federal incorporation law, is a very serious suggestion that kind of corporation which by virtue of the considerations already advanced, will take advantage voluntarily of any corporation law, while the other State corporations, doing an interstate business do not need the supervision of the regulation of a Federal license, and would only be unnecessarily burdened thereby.

The Attorney-General, at my suggestion, has drafted a Federal compulsory license law, embodying the views I have attempted to set forth, and it will be at the disposition of the appropriate committee of Congress.

RABBI M. A. MEYER ASSUMES CHARGE

Arrives From Brooklyn, N. Y., to Commence Duties at Temple Emanu-El

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Temple Emanu-El's new rabbi, the Rev. Dr. M. A. Meyer, native son of California and for the last three and a half years in charge of Temple Israel, a leading synagogue of Brooklyn, New York, reached this city yesterday and is at the St. Francis.

Rabbi Meyer takes the pulpit made vacant by the death of his former teacher and mentor, and he will be inaugurated into his important duties in one of the widest and largest temples of worship in the world from tomorrow. On the day of his inauguration, Dr. Meyer will have attained his thirty-third birthday.

The new pastor of Temple Emanu-El was greeted on his arrival by Lipman Sachs, president of the congregation. The latter is enthusiastic over the acquisition of such a "learned man and one whom he considers the foremost rabbi in the country."

"I have absolutely no medieval ecclesiastical ideas," declared Rabbi Meyer yesterday, "and have been accustomed to take off my coat, when it becomes necessary to do the work at hand."

He declared that he does not expect to fill Dr. Voorsanger's place, as that would be an impossibility, but he hopes to make a place of his own in the affections of his congregation and the community.

OAKLAND MAN WINS.

George P. Dimpfel of Oakland has been promoted to the position of examiner of merchandise in the San Francisco custom house in the office of United States Appraiser Mattos. He passed a civil service examination with the highest percentage of twenty-eight contestants. He entered the service as a welder.

SHETTLER MAKES AN EXPLANATION

Declares He Made Decisions Regarding Cup of His Own Volition

Editor TRIBUNE: I am in the city representing Leon T. Shettler, of Los Angeles, in regard to the controversy over the Oakland cup. You probably know the matter is adjusted. Mr. Shettler's position has been misunderstood. No conditions were exhibited when he refused to run before the race and the first intimation was made to him after the race in the nature of a demand.

Mr. Shettler realized the advantage of publicity for Oakland, and for himself, therefore, agreed to run. He was to send the cup to New York and Chicago shows. This was done on his own volition.

What I wish to convey is that Mr. Shettler did not refuse to carry out any agreement for the purpose of making a race. Mr. Shettler is one of the largest auto dealers on the coast, and is always the leading spirit of the south in all things, tending to promote the community and the auto business.

His car, not the property of the Apperson people, has won several races other than the Portola, among them the Santa Monica Road race, Pasadena-Alhambra Hill climb, Redlands Hill climb, and Alhambra City fifty mile.

These are some of its recent performances, and Shettler never had any trouble. The matter of this cup is adjusted, but Mr. Shettler is not as bad as you people think.

The entire controversy resulted from misunderstanding, and I wish to say that Mr. Layman has met me and carried out our agreement on that basis and on the basis of a broad business man, which he is.

W. F. FORD,
Attorney for Mr. Shettler.

TRACK LABORERS KILLED BY TRAIN

Engineer Runs Locomotive Without Headlight and Fatal Collision Follows

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 7.—A special work train collided with a passenger train of Japanese laborers three miles below this city last night. Two Japanese were killed and one badly injured. It is believed he will die.

The engineer, Hansen, was running without a headlight and apparently disregarded the signal displayed by Timekeeper McMillan, who was in charge of the Japanese crew of workmen.

The Japanese friends and relatives have gathered at the station and are expected to bring suit for damages.

WILL ELIMINATE GERMAN SCARE

British Government to Put Aside the Rumors of a War

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 7.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's declaration in Toronto's conservative and ultra-imperial stronghold—that Canada would build its automobiles navy in its own way and not be stampeded by the rumors of war between Britain and Germany, gives an inkling of the government's attitude in the naval debate in the House of Commons. The German scare is to be eliminated as far as possible.

DEBARRED WOMAN NOT IMPORTED BY MRS. EDDY

Editor TRIBUNE: My attention has been called to a reference in your columns a short time ago to Mrs. Mary Eddinger, who had been refused admission to the United States by the immigration board. As the story has been widely circulated that this woman came to America to fill a position as cook in Mrs. Eddinger's household, I would call your attention to the following correction by Mr. Alfred Farlow, Christian Science committee on publication in Boston, in which he says: "It has been stated that Mrs. Eddinger, the English lady whose entrance at the Boston port was refused by the immigration board, was bound for the home of Mrs. Eddinger, who was a woman who was to fill the position of cook."

"This report is entirely incorrect. Mrs. Eddinger was not bound for Mrs. Eddinger's home, nor has she been employed or even thought of as a cook for Mrs. Eddinger."

"The woman in question is a woman who was employed by Mrs. Eddinger, and when questioned by the board whether she had friends or relatives in Boston, she mentioned this woman's name and address. This has probably served as a foundation for the false rumor that the woman was an importation of Mrs. Eddinger's. Yours sincerely,

SAN FRANCISCO Jan. 7.—The thirty citizens, who are to assume the burdens of putting through the project of holding the Panama-Pacific International exposition here in 1915 were announced yesterday by Chairman F. W. Dohrmann of the committee of three selected by the city and county boards of supervisors.

In making the announcements Dohrmann stated that the thirty men who were selected for the committee of 300 who were advising the city and county boards of supervisors in the past have been added to the list of men who have been selected for the committee of 300.

The following resolution was adopted by the committee of three:

Resolved, That the report of the committee of three be approved and that the thirty gentlemen named be declared as the directing committee, and that the committee be given full power to act on all matters relating to the exposition, and to manage and finance and that it report to this committee on ways and means from time to time at the call of the chair.

Before adjourning General James F.
Smith, former governor general of the Philippine Islands, was introduced and made the following remarks:

People say that the people of San Francisco have many differences and frequently look horns. It is true, but it is a commendable and a strong people of a citizenship composed of strong characters, but there is one proposition that every citizen understands and there is one platform upon which all citizens stand and that is the plan of action and the prosperity of San Francisco.

OLYMPIC GAMES

Jan. 7.—A. H. Hannon, member of the Downtown Athletic Club, member of the committee on ways and means and prominent in Olympic Club affairs, has suggested the holding of the Olympic games in this city in 1915 during the exposition period.

His fellow members are enthusiastic over the idea and steps are being taken to grab the big athletic event for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Steps will be immediately taken to bring the athletes of the world to this city to compete in the magnificent exposition that will be a part of the great fair.

A letter in the project was received by the committee from the Outlet Art League, Frederick L. Hall of Berkeley, suggesting the consolidation of the city and county boards of supervisors and the consolidation of this city and county boards.

His suggestion is that the city and county boards be used to bring about better transportation facilities between the city and county boards.

Hall believes that consolidation will aid the exposition.

NO DANGER OF FAMINE, SAY DEALERS IN COAL

Alameda County Association of Merchants Issue Reassuring Statement

ALARMIST STORIES ONLY
AGGRAVATE SITUATION

Australian Supply Short, But
Shipments From Wyoming Are Regular

According to the official statement of the Alameda Coal Dealers Association made today through their secretary, J.
B. Murr, there is no danger of a coal famine in Oakland and there is absolutely no reason to believe that they will again raise the price of coal. The dealers are willing to admit that there is a scarcity of coal but with their reserves there is in the judgment of these dealers no reason to believe there will be any famine.

There have been alarming stories said Murr today about a coal famine.
The only result of this has been to aggravate the situation. People who read these stories began to get alarmed and lots of our customers who had enough of a supply on hand began at once to buy more and thus create a condition that gave some basis to the rumors. If every person would be careful to see that they had sufficient coal for his needs and did not buy more than they could use there would be a better condition of affairs.

What about the Australian supply being short this winter on account of the strikes of that country?
It is true, it is regretted that the supply we usually get from Australia is going to be short on account of the strikes.
But there are a lot of cargoes of that coal and from the J. Panos mines on the way which had been shipped before the strikes began. It must also be remembered that the demand for coal is now on the wane. The cargoes from Australia now coming to Oakland amount to probably 150,000 tons. The warehouses of some of the railroads are out our supply considerably, but there seems to be no difference between the coal of the strikes and the coal of the railroads.

We are getting a lot of coal daily and an additional supply is received daily over the Western Pacific which takes something from the aggregate of the loss in supply from other points.

The Alameda coal dealers' emphasized Mr. Murr's point that a fairly good reserve supply. We do not see a scarcity, but see no reason as I stated before for preparing a famine within the range of possibility. The dealers realize the competition they have from other methods of heating and will not raise the prices.
Again unless there is the very remote possibility of a cutting off of supplies and the dealers themselves are forced to pay increased charges.

Aero Clubs to Hold Meeting at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 7.—Aero clubs of America will hold a convention in St.
Louis the last week in January presided over by Cortlandt Field Bishop, president of the Aero Club of America.
Bishop will urge a general alliance of all clubs into a national federation. According to official reports, the meeting will be one of the most important aeronautical

Bishop is said to be planning a com-which the convention will take up.
